

Find out what Broadband has to Offer at www.broadband.gr

@ www.broadband.gr

In the context of the information campaign with the title "Broadband: Find out what it offers", EETT has updated the website www.broadband.gr.

By visiting this website, the consumer has the opportunity to learn about broadband and to discover broadband services that may be useful in many aspects of everyday life, such as health care, training, business, dealing with the public sector and communication.

Among other things, the website also includes the following:

- Broadband publications by EETT.
- The Illustrated Dictionary of Informatics and Broadband.
- Broadband terms glossary.
- Videos and events (conferences) on issues of broadband Internet.
- Information on the 4 basic pillars of the EETT's campaign (work, information, communication, entertainment) and the relevant promotional actions (TV and radio spots, ads, advertorials).
- Quality Index for broadband services offered.
- Broadband Geographic Information System (GIS).
