

Extension of deadline for the submission of comments and views for the public consultation on the Bottom Up pure LRIC model for mobile termination rates

The National Telecommunications and Post Commission announces the extension of the deadline for the submission of views and comments on the document of the public consultation on the principles and methodology of the Bottom Up pure LRIC model for mobile termination rates, as well the model itself as set forth in the communicated excel file, by an additional period of one week, i.e. until Monday, 26th November, 2012, at 15:00 p.m. Greek time.