

Information

Premium rate services (also known as Multimedia Information Services) include the following categories of services:

- Voting
- Competitions
- Purchases (e.g. 'downloading' games, ringtones, videos).
- Participation in TV game shows via telephone
- Adult services
- Weather forecast
- Astrology/card reading
- Sports news
- Gambling

They typically cost more than sending a normal SMS message or calling a fixed or mobile number. The cost of such services is directly charged on the user's fixed/mobile phone bill. Also, there are relevant subscription services to which users need to register, with or without charge.
