

Complaint handling

If you are interested in submitting a complaint about interferences, you can fill out the complaint form about interferences.

EETT conducts inspections and carries out measurements using special measuring equipment in order to locate the origin of interference and resolve the problems, duly informing the complainant.