

Human resources

Our employees are the driving force that enables us to effectively perform our tasks. The regulatory, supervisory and monitoring role of EETT requires multi-level and specialized expertise. In this context, we focus on the training and enhancement of personnel experience. We also undertake actions to ensure the occupational health and safety of our personnel.