

Occupational health & Safety

EETT considers a healthy work environment as key pillar of development.

In this context, we undertake actions to ensure the health and safety of our personnel. We also implement specialized programmes and tools, aiming at supporting and guiding our people in managing any issues affecting their performance. In this way, employee work engagement is significantly enhanced.