

Organization chart

EETT has completed and annually updates the digital organization chart, which is a prerequisite for its participation in the Unified Mobility System. The digital organization chart depicts the structure and staffing of the organizational units and corresponding job descriptions, which are also updated on an annual basis. Also, EETT annually issues a decision on the allocation of positions per organizational unit, in order to ensure proper and effective operation.

Organization Chart

