

International collaborations

EETT participates in European/International bodies, intervening on key issues in relation to electronic communications, radio frequency spectrum and postal services, as well as on competition issues, and thus actively contributing to a cohesive strategy planning. EETT's representation in these bodies promotes Greece's positions on important regulatory and technological as well as competition issues, while at the same time EETT experts acquire specialized knowledge on critical issues.

Εικονίδιο

Σελίδας

