

Licensing

To provide postal services under a General Authorization or Individual License, you are first required to register to the registry of postal service providers through eRegistry, a web application developed by EETT.

Extra Box 1